

This concerns the Sinclairs Group airing of the Stolen Honor documentary/news story. We should have the right to view this kind of story and exercise our right not to by turning to a different channel. Why were the politicians and attorneys allowed to make the choice for us?